

The «Association pour les Nations Unies », APNU,
The «Vereniging voor de Verenigde Naties », VVN
The “United Nations Regional Information Centre”, UNRIC
The “Brussels Climate March” and Egmont, the Royal Institute for International Relations

have the pleasure of inviting you to a conference on Wednesday 21 October 2015 at 18h00

at the Residence Palace (Polak Hall), Rue de la Loi, Schuman Square, in Brussels, on

«The UN Conference on Climate Change (COP 21) in Paris in December 2015 – What is at stake?»

With Brice Lalonde and Philippe Lamberts

Mr. Brice Lalonde is Special Advisor on Sustainable Development to the UN Global Compact. Before that, Mr. Lalonde was Executive Coordinator for the Rio+20 Conference, and, before, the French ambassador for climate change negotiations. From 1988 to 1992, he served as French minister for the Environment and was strongly involved in global issues. He also chaired the Round Table for Sustainable Development at the OECD and held the position of Director of the Paris office of the Institute for a European Environment Policy.

Mr. Philippe Lamberts is a member of the European Parliament since 2009 and was recently elected co-Chair of the Greens /EFA political group. He is member of the Committee for Economic & Monetary Affairs (ECON), specialized in economic governance and financial regulations. He is also member of the newly established Committee TAXE.

It is necessary to register in advance by email at: secretaire@apnu.be,